

What is IV Leads Group?

*We are a Professional Development Group that brings together our emerging young professionals (aged 22-45) in the IV area to help them develop their leadership skills both personally and professionally.

*We host multiple events a year, hosting local and professional speakers who focus on motivation, sales, memorization skills, professional growth, networking tips, etc. Some examples of past presenters are—Randy Fox, Scott Struchen, Laurie Guest, Julie Coughlin & Jamie Taylor, Steve Thomas & Karissa Kouchis, who works directly with renowned motivational speaker, Tony Robbins!

*We recognize local mentors from our area with 2 mentor panel presentations a year. These mentors are nominated and voted on by members of our IV Leads Group based on who we feel is a great leader and setting an excellent example for our future leaders.

How is IV Leads different from other networking groups/events?

We separate ourselves from other area groups because we are a Professional Development group that is available only to its members. While there are multiple avenues for social based networking available in our area, our group is designed to focus on the young, future leaders of our area who are wanting to make a difference in themselves and continue to grow within their company and career. We strive to bring the best and the brightest of our area together at our events every other month. We make sure they are learning ways to make themselves stronger, personally and professionally, from the best of the best!

How do I become a member of IV Leads?

We invite any business professional between the ages of 22-45 to join us at any of our upcoming events. The first event you attend is free! We have applications available at every event or you can request an application by emailing illinoisvalleyleads@gmail.com. Membership fee is $35.00 for the year (not including event fees) or the option of paying $75.00 a year to cover membership and all event fees. Additional fees will be dependent on speaker cost, as well as if a meal is provided. Follow IV Leads Group on Facebook to watch for upcoming events and also member highlights. We look forward to new faces and helping the next generation of leaders in the Illinois Valley!
